

Knovada LMS

Manage and support your most important asset:
YOUR EMPLOYEES with a robust and cost effective
Learning Management System that provides:

- The ability to significantly decrease your organization's training cost
- Improving employee productivity by providing the knowledge required to perform their job functions
- Maintaining the skills required to remain competitive in a dynamic and technology driven business environment
- Access to an extensive library of online training courses specifically developed for the business and government sector
- Ability to develop company specific training materials for delivery online
- Supports both traditional classroom and web-based training programs

Improving productivity through effective personnel management

Knovada is an internationally recognized provider of enterprise solutions with a focus on the delivery of web enabled integrated software solutions for human resources, education and training and employee/customer communications. With a modular design and component architecture, the organization can select those specific elements which provide the greatest value to the enterprise thereby achieving the lowest total cost of ownership while maximizing the return on their software investment.

We are positioned to capitalize on our products today and continue to support corporations and their visions for the web in the future. Knovada has developed various web based business tools with features and functionality applicable today. With speed and efficiency, our web based software solutions enable corporations to realize significant return on their investment in a short period of

Online Interactive Classroom

- Easy to use windows style user interface allows the company to easily create/update training materials.
- Publish training materials for secure access by your employees.
- Set date and time restrictions when training content will be available.
- Identify those employees who can access training content.
- Identify prerequisites required for specific content.
- Customize the layout and presentation of your company's content to meet your branding requirements..
- Integrates the training content with the Online Test System to track participant understanding and retention.
- Manages and controls traditional classroom registrations, classroom facilities and class size restrictions.

Online Test System

- Administer tests through an interactive questionnaire module.
- Provides an objective and defensible employee appraisal process.
- Multiple question formats:
 - Multiple choice
 - True/False
 - Text Based
 - Images
 - Multimedia
- Random question selection
- Option to assign weighted values to test questions.
- Ability to place time limits on the entire test or each page of test.
- Sophisticated response system provides the ability to redirect test takers to different questions based upon their responses

Online Reporting and Tracking

- Automated reports to provide instant access to results..
- Student report cards for individual performance.
- Management reports which track their employee's performance.
- Testing results can be summarized by group, region, etc.
- Trend analysis based upon historical testing results by course or instructor.

Enhanced Communications and Information Flow

To everyone
At all times
In all places
In a cost effective manner

LMS Administration

The management and administration of the LMS infrastructure is controlled by the company's training/HR staff.
No Information Technology resources are required.
Easy to use customization options.
Can adapt to changing business requirements.
Application program interface facilitates external system integration.
Controlling user access through security levels.
Fully web-enabled to support multiple office locations with a centralized system.

